HIGHLIGHTING NEWS AT UNION COLLEGE

JANUARY 29, 2004

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

◆ The Ministerial Club will host three lectures by Dr. John Baldwin from the Theological Seminary at Andrews University. He will discuss the Creation-Evolution debate on Friday, Jan. 30, 7:30 p.m. in the Christianson Board room, Saturday, Jan. 31, 10:30 a.m. in the amphitheater and 3:30 p.m. in the amphitheater. Everyone is invited to attend.

◆ The Lincoln Police Department has recently accepted an offer from Union to locate a police substation in the College View area. The department has been considering a substation site in this part of southeast Lincoln for some time. Located adjacent to campus, the substation will be open 24 hours a day from a Union-owned apartment on the corner of Bancroft and 51st. The substation will become functional Feb. 1. If you have questions about the substation, contact Linda Wysong at ext. 2507.

◆ Upcoming Union Warriors Basketball games:

Men

Thurs., Jan. 29 Neb. Wesleyan JV (away) 8 p.m.
Tues., Feb. 3 Manhattan (away) 7:30 p.m.
Tues., Feb. 10 Nebraska Christian (home) 7 p.m.

◆ A big thank you to the ever increasing support from faculty and staff to the United Way. If you wish to know more about the United Way and how to contribute, contact Stephanie Meyer at ext. 2537. Following are the contribution totals for the past four years.

2003 Campaign: $5,394
2002 Campaign: $4,233
2001 Campaign: $4,691
2000 Campaign: $4,334

◆ Dr. Tim Howe, adjunct music faculty member, will be presenting a faculty trombone recital on Jan. 29, 7 p.m. at College View church, accompanied by Dr. Ken Hoppmann from the Union music faculty. Admission is free.

◆ ASB Elections will take place soon. Packets can be picked up in Student Services for president, executive, financial, social and academic offices. Elections will take place on Feb. 24.

◆ Academy students from around the union will be on campus for the Mid-America Union Conference Music Festival Feb. 4-7. This year the music festival will feature choir and string instruments. Please make these students feel welcome as they share their talent.

◆ The Ortner Center conference facilities can be reserved by calling Sharon Russell at ext. 2443 or stopping by the Ortner Center front desk. Rate and policy requests information can also be directed to Sharon.

FACULTY NOTABLES

◆ Scot Anderson graduated in December with a Masters of Science in Computer Science. He has been accepted into the Ph.D in computer science program at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

◆ LuAnn Davis will be serving in 2004 as the president-elect of the Nebraska chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals. She will serve as the chapter president in 2005.

◆ Chris Blake spoke four times on January 9-10 to two California churches, Sunnyvale and Mountain View, as they invited young adults and others to the special weekend. He discovered that hundreds of people in the Mountain Veiv church had already read his book, Searching for a God to Love, as a result of a much-loved member's dying wish that each person attending her funeral be given the book.

◆ Elizabeth Rodacker-Borgens completed a synopsis of James Hoggs' novel The Brownie of Bodsbeck, as part of the Corvey Novels Project at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. She wrote this summary for a graduate studies seminar on Jane Austen. The synopsis is available online at www.unl.edu/Corvey/html/Projects/CorveyNovels/NovelsPreparedindex.htm Select James Hogg or The Brownie of Bodsbeck link.

WEB TIP

◆ All information on Union's new Web site can be accessed through the home page and the ten division links. The site map, as before, is an alphabetical index of major content areas, but is no longer the only route to that information. Look for a search engine in the near future.

KUDOS

◆ During the opening day meal on Jan. 14, ASB and Student Services thanked the following people for their commitment and hard work towards making the Ortner Center and Union Market becoming a reality.

Don Murray and staff
LuAnn Davis and staff
Gary Bollinger
Pat Parmele and staff

DIVISION NEWS

◆ Religion professors Sieg Roeske, Sylvester Case, Bob Fetrick and Tom Shepherd attended the annual Society of Biblical Literature meetings in Atlanta, Nov. 20-25. Tom Shepherd presented a paper to the Mark group entitled "The Irony of Power in the Trial of Jesus and the Denial by Peter: Mark 14:53-72."

◆ Business Best In Class Advisory Board member Shannan Nelson '92 spent all day on January 12 sharing ideas with business students. He made presentations on a wide range of topics to six different classes, met with small groups at lunch and supper to discuss leadership styles and entrepreneurship, and finished by presenting a Business Awareness Series on Leadership and Influence to more than 100 students and faculty.

◆ Many faculty and staff have requested server access to create a Web site that will be helpful to students in their courses. To receive access, contact Tom Becker in Information Systems at ext. 2511. Those interested in this option are responsible for creating and maintaining their own site. An example of a Web site for created this use can be found at www.ucollege.edu/riwebb.
